

Becky Hobbs

In 1998, Ralph Novak (People Magazine) called Becky Hobbs “Country music’s best-kept secret.” A decade earlier, her critically acclaimed “All Keyed Up” album (MTM/BMG), busted out on the scene, with chart singles “Jones on the Jukebox,” “Are There Anymore Like You (Where You Came From)” and more.

Becky has had over 25 chart records, including Top Ten Duet with Moe Bandy, “Let’s Get Over Them Together.” Known for her high-energy shows, kicking the keys, playing the accordion, and acoustic guitar, the “Beckaroo” will rope you in like an Oklahoma cowgirl!

- ♥ Her songs have been recorded by Alabama (including “Angels Among us”), Conway Twitty (#1 hit “I Want To Know You Before We Make Love”), George Jones, Loretta Lynn, Emmylou Harris, Glen Campbell, Wanda Jackson, John Anderson, Janie Fricke, Lacy J Dalton, Moe Bandy, Shelly West, Helen Reddy, Shirley Bassey, Jane Oliver, Ken Mellons, Demi Lovato, Cherokee National Youth Choir and others. • Performed in over 40 countries, including nine in Africa.
- ♥ Honored as Cherokee National Statesman at the 2017 Cherokee National Holiday in Tahlequah, OK. In 2017
- ♥ Composer and Co-playwright of the the 18-song musical “Nanyehi -The Story of Nancy Ward” Co-produced, co-wrote, wrote and sang the signature song “Let There Be Peace” for the short film “Nanyehi”
- ♥ Becky’s co-written song “You Are” (recorded by Glen Campbell & Emmylou Harris) was nominated for a Grammy
- ♥ Inducted into the Oklahoma Music Hall of Fame in 2015.
